SUCRE

By Stasia

It was love that brought Stasia to Australia. After meeting the love of her life Italian-Australian Nikolo in the French city of Dijon, she was destined for a new beginning in Australia.

Upon arriving in Sydney for a new chapter, she began trying various desserts, pastries, gateaux, tarts and French macarons of course. It was evident to her that 'love' was non-existent in the various desserts she tried. The love she was referring to was ultimately passion. A passion to create flavours that stimulate your senses and leave you wanting more.

Today we are proud to have Stasia create a new range called 'Sucre' which is exclusive to IBD. Sucre translates to 'sugary' in French. It is a word we have picked to pay homage to the French traditions that Stasia brings to the kitchen but also to attribute the sweetness of this range.

Prendre plaisir! Enjoy!

NO SUCRE

By Stasia

When Italian hearthrob Nikolo married pastry Chef Stasia, he came to the conclusion that his stomach would always be full & soon realised it would also soon be bigger too but as they say “never underestimate a French woman!”

With true skillset & passion, French pastry Chef Stasia created a new range of sweets titled 'NO SUCRE'. This pays homage to the ancient Mediterranean way of life which was based on foods that were created with raw ingredients and non sugarcane based sweetness.

Today we are proud to have this exclusive IBD Range titled 'NO SUCRE by Stasia'. It is 100% refined sugar free, paleo & keto friendly + vegan.
